WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY PARTY.

One of the prettiest Washington birthday parties was that at which Miss Ruth McElhenny was hostess, at her home on Twenty-fifth street. The rooms were beautifully decorated, the national colors predominating. In the hall was an arch with lattice work, skillfully made of narrow streamers of crepe paper. Festoons of the same material radiated from the chandelier in the dining room, to all parts of the room, while a canopy with corner posts, made of the red, white and blue streamers, formed the parlor decorations. The globes of the chandelier were also done in the national colors, and the guests from different schools were effectively arranged.

A two-course luncheon, every detail of which harmonized with the color scheme, was served. Guests found their places at the table by matching the states and their capitals, and the place cards—red hatchets, each with a cluster of cherries fastened on the handle with red, white and blue ribbon—were unusually dainty and unique. A feature of the luncheon was the delivering of toasts to Washington, and prizes for the best efforts were awarded to Gladys Ballantyne and Bertha Furchie.

The following young people enjoyed Mrs. McElhenny's hospitality: Misses Gladys Ballantyne, Beatrice Pingree, Bertha Furchie, Lorella Blackman, Cora Volker, Marion Browning, Messrs. Ferner Watkins, Laurel Brown, Ray Belnap and Earl Read.

MRS. STRATFORD HONORED.

The primary officers of Wilson Ward tendered President Minnie C. Stratford a pleasant and well-planned surprise last Wednesday evening, in recognition of her services as president in the primary association for the last five years. The surprise in every respect was a success, and she showed her appreciation by the loyal manner in which she entertained her friends. A musical and various games, the guests about 30 in number, repaired to the dining room, where a delicious and tempting repast was served.

After all were seated at the table, Amie Pingree, the first counselor, who has labored with the retiring president during the five years, in a happy mood, made an address and presented Mrs. Stratford with a set of beautiful tea spoons, as a token of love and respect of the officers. The president was greatly moved, and after a few minutes, feelingly responded.

Those present were: Minnie C. Stratford, Annie R. Pingree, Vinetta Martin, Edna Robinson, Lottie Ellis, Eleanor Holmes, Lettie Walker, Ella Bingham, Della Bingham and Mabel Barton, officers of the primary; Frank W. Stratford, Elmer Robinson, Albert Martin, Gose, Slot, Carl Olson, Dee Pingree, Albert Bingham, Wm. Holmes, Martha Barton, Agnes Johnson, Eva Stratford, Mrs. Olson, Laura Olson, Irene Duffin, Mrs. Wm. Holmes, Mrs. Battle, Isabel Olson, George Battle, Willie and Lizzie Stratford.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The Ogden Historical club met Saturday, Feb. 27, with Miss Carrie Knapp.

Following a short business session, Miss Ellen Thomas gave a vocal solo, with Miss Carrie Browning accompanying. Later in the afternoon Miss Thomas rendered another selection and responded to a persistent demand for more "When Celia Sings."

Mrs. Gordon gave without notes a twenty minutes' talk on "The Newer Ideals of Peace," as set forth in Jane Adams' book—with that title. Mrs. Gordon spoke in her usual pleasing manner and added points of interest from her personal observation of the Hull House work.

The president read from a newspaper clipping an appeal, from an excellent source, for some organization that shall stand in readiness to help the boys as they leave the prison, to decent ways of life, by showing a human sympathy and understanding of the needs of men as human beings. The suggestion was made that the possibility of doing good by means of a committee on "Help to Ex-convicts." The reading of "The Turn of the Balance" was recommended to all club members, and the president's homily ended with a quotation to the effect that real altruism consists in saying "Lord, Lord" one day in seven, and acting for the remaining six days as if there were no God.

Miss Knapp gave a full and most enjoyable review of "The Orchard" by Robert Grant, which brought up a discussion of the ever increasing settled question of marriage, divorce, affinity and kindred topics.

The club adjourned to meet at 2:30 o'clock March 13, with Mrs. A. B. Patton, when Irish literature will be considered by Miss Seaman, Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Condon.

A WISCONSIN PIONEER

Says Pe-ru-na is "Worth its Weight in Gold."

John Paulin, Sr., Says: "Peruna Cured My Catarrh."

Mr. John Paulin, Sr., a pioneer of Port Washington, Wis., 119 Franklin St., is held in high esteem by the residents of that place. He is one of the oldest citizens. In a recent letter he says: "I have used Peruna with good results for coughs and colds which troubled me every fall and winter. It has also cured my catarrh, which always became worse when affected with but a slight cold. I am recommending Peruna because it is worth its weight in gold."—Mr. John Paulin, Port Washington, Wis.

Per-na is a Catarrhal Tonic Especially Adapted to the Declining Powers of Old Age.

Healthy organs and healthy functions retained beyond the usual time.

As a rule, at the age of 60 or 70 years, the functions begin to wane and the various organs to lose their natural power.

This need not occur. At least not in all cases. Many a man and woman have retained their health and vigor much later in life.

We have on file several letters from octogenarians who have found Perna of priceless value to them as their declining years advanced.

Has Reached Four Score Years and Weighs 156 Pounds.

Mr. Levi Kegg, Rainburg, Pa., writes: "Your medicine has done me so much good I intend to keep it on hand all the time."

"I had all the symptoms of systemic catarrh. My eyes were red and inflamed, my throat, stomach and bowels troubled me, was nervous, had nervous headaches, I am now entirely cured by Peruna."

"I am eighty years old, and I never weighed more than 140, but now I weigh 156 pounds."

and be shielded from the many temptations of life.

Special music will be rendered at this service. All are cordially invited, irrespective of religious belief, or denominational affiliation. Since the greatest good can be done to the greatest number, let all plan to attend this service.

JAMES A. THOMPSON, A PIONEER, PASSES AWAY

James A. Thompson, aged 86 years, a pioneer resident of Weber county, died at 11:45 p. m. Friday, at family residence, 1067 Twenty-fourth street, of cancer. The deceased was born in Glasgow, Scotland, August 15, 1822. He became a member of the Latter-Day Saints' church in 1842, emigrated to Utah in 1860. He resided in Salt Lake nineteen years, where he was connected for several years with the Deseret News as foreman and also in the editorial department. He was foreman of the first daily paper published in Utah. He moved from Salt Lake to Eden in 1879, and resided there until 14 years ago, when he removed to Ogden. He was superintendent of Sunday schools at Eden for 14 years. April 18, 1883, he was married to Christina Lindsey, who alone survives him.

He was a member of the High Priests quorum of the Weber Stake at the time of his death.

Funeral service will be held today at 2:30, at the Fifth Ward meeting house.

Remains will lie in state at the home, Sunday, between hours of 10 and 1. Burial in City cemetery.

Is Certainly a Wonderful Woman

Grand Opening Sale

Of the YALE Toilet and Health Preparations

Souvenirs From Mme. Yale for Our Lady Patrons

The lecture given by Madame Yale at the Grand Opera House was certainly a remarkable performance by this exceedingly remarkable woman. This is the first time that Madame Yale has ever visited our city, and her coming here certainly opens up a new era to women, extending to them an opportunity to see and hear her—and profit by the good advice given. The press have proclaimed Madame Yale as the most brilliant and successful woman in her work today. She has lectured in all parts of the globe. Her well-known products are sold by the leading merchants throughout the breadth of the land. Such houses as Marshall Field & Co., of Chicago, (who are known as the Merchant Princes of the world) and, in fact, the most prominent houses in each large city represent Madame Yale as her agents for their territory, and we are exceedingly pleased to say that we have secured the agency for this city for the celebrated Yale line of Toilet and Health Preparations. As is always our aim to give the public the best of everything the world produces so it is with these preparations that have been on the market for years and years. We shall make the Yale line a prominent and permanent feature of our Toilet Goods department. We have the entire line here—some 55 different items. In this connection we wish to direct special attention to this, our opening sale of these products, and to make the event even more interesting, and as Mme. Yale is anxious to have all women use these wonderful preparations, she has sent us for distribution a supply of Souvenir jars of the Yale Skin Food (holding one dollar's worth.) The Yale Skin Food sells regularly at $1.50 and $3.00 per jar.

Yale Skin Food Free

We will present one of these Souvenir jars of Yale Skin Food FREE during this special sale to each purchaser of any of the Yale dollar articles to introduce them.

We desire to suggest that purchase be made early as the supply of Souvenir jars is limited. This sale will continue all the coming week. We mention below a few of the Yale preparations.
